|C                    |%            |
Rudolph the red-nosed reindeer,
|C                    |G7            |
Had a very shiny nose,
|%                    |%            |
And if you ever saw it,
|%                    |C            |
You would even say it glows.
|C                    |%            |
All of the other reindeer,
|C                    |G7            |
Used to laugh and call him names,
|G7                    |%            |
They never let poor Rudolph,
|G7                    |C    C7       |
Join in any reindeer games.
|F                    |C            |Dm G7    |C       |
Then one foggy Christmas Eve, Santa came to say,
|G                    |G        G#dim |A7        D7        |G7            |
"Rudolph with your nose so bright, won't you guide my sleigh tonight?"
|C                    |%            |
Then how the reindeer loved him,
|C                    |G7            |
As they shouted out with glee,
|G7                    |%            |
"Rudolph the red-nosed reindeer,
