(6/8)

Intro:

|:A            |E            |F#mi        |D            |
|A            |E            |D            |%            :|

Verse:

|A                    |E                    |F#mi                |D                    |
Train roll on,                    on down the line,                    won't you
|A                    |E                    |D                    |%                    |
please take me far                    away?
|A                    |E                    |F#mi                |D                    |
Now I feel the wind blow                    outside my door. Means I'm
|A                    |E                    |D                    |%                    |
I'm leaving my woman behind.

Chorus:

|A                    |G                    |D                    |%                    |
Tuesday's gone with the wind.
|A                    |E                    |D                    |%                    |
My baby's gone with the wind.

Guitar Solo:

|A                    |E                    |F#mi                |D                    |
|A                    |E                    |D                    |%                    |

Verse:

And I don't know, oh, where I'm going.
I just want to be left alone.
Well, when this train ends I'll try again,
I'm leaving my woman at home, Lordy.

Chorus:

Tuesday's gone with the wind.
Tuesday's gone with the wind.
Tuesday's gone with the wind.
My baby's gone with the wind. Train roll on...

Piano Solo:

|A                    |E                    |F#m                |D                    |
Tuesday's gone...

|A            |E            |D            |%            |

Verse:

Train roll on many miles from my home.
See, I'm riding my blues away.
Tuesday, you see, she had to be free
but somehow I've got to carry on, Lordy.

Chorus:

Tuesday's gone with the wind.
Tuesday's gone with the wind.
Tuesday's gone with the wind.
My baby's gone with the wind. Train roll on...
